The Ghost of My Father has received some of the best reviews of all six of my books. I'm grateful to all 247 of my kickstarter backers for supporting this ambitious project about family, memory and making sense of myself.. Recently I did a live Q&A about How To Write A Memoir.It was a reward for the book's backers. This post is a summary of the advice I shared.

Narrow down your topic. Once you have a general subject that you're interested in, you'll need to narrow it down to its core elements. In other words, you can't write an essay about a broad concept you're curious about or interested in; you'll need to work out the nuts and bolts of what that topic means to you.
